

THE KINDERGARTEN CONNECTION

Friday, February 3, 2012

We focused on the letter Rr this week. We read A Rainy Day and practiced rhyme. We learned about greater than and less than and read our mass parts in the microphone. We even watched Bedtime Stories in our pajamas! Next week we will continue our study of the alphabet with the letter Ss.

MAGAZINE SALE:

Our annual magazine sale kicked off today. Your child should have a packet of information about this fundraiser. Please look it over and consider letting your child sell some magazines/music. This is one of only two fundraisers that we do and we need to do well in order to keep from needing more fundraisers in the future. I would also suggest that you send in the orders as you get them (the packet will say to hold them until the last day.) We give out daily prizes and the kids are rewarded from time to time according to how many prizes they have earned. Another tip is to try to sell enough for your child to earn the chance to go on the inflatable obstacle course. It is so much fun and the kids are always disappointed when they don't get to participate. If you have any questions about the sale or the prizes, call or email and I will do my best to clarify things for you!

REMINDERS:

- ✓ We did get 2 new Star Words this week. We now have 24.
- ✓ THANK YOU for sending in money for our SMAFA Chili Supper raffle basket. Our basket sold for $260!!
- ✓ Our nursery rhyme will be "Hey Diddle Diddle" next week.
- ✓ Everyone is on the Twister List! (Keep practicing to stay sharp.)
- ✓ If your child brings money for an oatmeal bar on Tuesday, please have it in an envelope with his name on it. Thank you! (50 cents)
- ✓ Remember to "like" Malana's artwork on Facebook!
- ✓ I will send home the results of the second Indiana Reading Assessment and Writing assessment with the midterm on Friday.

God bless you,

Please be sure your child dresses nicely for mass on Wednesday. I prefer no jeans unless that is all you have. Remember to practice those readings!

OUR VALENTINE PARTY:

We will have our party on Tuesday, February 14. We will enjoy a treat provided by the parents listed below. We will also pass out Valentine cards to classmates if you wish to do so. Please be sure that there is one for each child in the class. I know it may take a while, but it is great practice for your child to write the names on the cards himself. I ask that you do not send extra treats if you are not on the list below because we will not have time to pass out everything and eating extra sweets will just cause belly aches! Thanks for your understanding.

Treats: Julie Nobbe
Angie Ginder

Plates:
Danielle Gould

We have a tree nut allergy.
